MAY HE RISE TO GREATER HEIGHTS

THE people of the Sixth Congressional District of Mississippi have reelected Bill Colmer as their representative in Congress. They are to be congratulated for the exercise of good judgment. In these perilous days we need more men of the type of Bill Colmer in Congress. Men who have the courage of their convictions, and who stand their grounds for what they think is right. Men who are not cowed by the expressions of an organized minority, nor by the threat of retaliation at the polls for failure to support legislation that would redound to the benefit of a few to the detriment of our Country. Bill Colmer is a conservative. He is capable and his ability is recognized by his colleagues. He is today the most influential member of the Mississippi delegation in Washington. Talk does not bring these results. It takes hard work and attention to duty combined with sound judgment that brings recognition to a National Legislator.

Of course, Hancock County as usual gave Bill Colmer a large majority, in fact the largest proportionately than any County in the District. We are happy that it did. It was charged by his opposition that he cared nothing for the people of Hancock County and that he only called upon the big shots, and that he did not even take time out to make a speech in the County. Bill Colmer made only one speech in Hancock County that we can recollect and that was in the first race that he made for District Attorney in 1927. During the fourteen years that he has served in Congress he has yet to make a speech to the people of this County. He endeared himself to our people during his tenure of office as District Attorney and is regarded by many in the same light as they would regard a native son.

He has a greater personal acquaintance throughout Hancock County than any other man holding state or district office in Mississippi today. Words falling from the lips of man extolling his own virtues and ability are better left unsaid. It is far better to be judged by the service that you have rendered, and certainly the people of Hancock County left no doubt in the minds of any one that they felt that Bill Colmer had rendered them the type of service they expected of their congressman.

May he rise to greater heights in the service of his people and his Country.

RUBBER STAMP EXPLODES

WE remember that there was considerable criticism of President Roosevelt's appointment to the Supreme Court and the vociferous critics immediately asserted that the High Tribunal would be composed of "rubber stamp" justices, without any clash of opinion, which they insisted, was necessary for the High Court to function correctly.

The recent blast from Germany, cabled to this country by Justice Jackson, assailing Mr. Justice Black, ought to effectively answer the allegation. Certainly, the nation has not witnessed, in many years, such a vituperative denunciation of a justice by one of his brothers on the bench. Obviously, there is difference of opinion among the members of the high tribunal and the differences do not, seem to involve legal questions.

HOOVER HITS COMMUNISTS

HERBERT Hoover, former President of the United States and now in South America on a food study for President Truman, says that the "Communist Party in every country is trying to break down the provision of food for hungry people and thus produce chaos where they fish in troubled waters."

The former President said that in Brazil, as well as in the thirty-seven other countries he visited, wherever there was a Communist press, it attacked the effort to provide food for the hungry working people of the world.

Mr. Hoover makes the point that this opposition is interesting because the Communist press knows that the Christian world is denying itself food in order that the working people of France, Belgium, Italy, Poland, Yugoslavia and twenty other countries "may be saved from starvation."

Naturally, the fact that the Communist press in thirty-six countries has pursued something of a common line in opposing the effort to feed the starving millions of Europe and Asia can be taken as an indication of a common policy, directed from some source. The suggestion that the Communists want to produce chaos in order to "fish in troubled waters," is emphasized not only by the attitude of its press throughout the world but by the attitude of Russian representatives at practically every international conference.

PEACE & CONFUSION

Nothing upsets a nation's economy like war—and nothing puts a people's nerves on edge like the readjustments of peace. We are in a period of reconversion and hesitation.

We have passed through an era of flush times and easy money. Wars are not fought and cannot be won by pinching pennies. The urgency of action ignores economy, for the most expensive way is often the only way to hasten victory.

Faced with a staggering national debt there is no way to pay it off except through production and thrift. Hard work and sound economy are the most effective weapons of peace.

The habits of extravagance that war booms encourage are difficult to overcome. The temptation to squander one's substance and dissipate one's income is hard to resist.

Surrounded by uncertainty and some pessimism, we all know, however, that if we would be wise we must be frugal.

Nothing we have done on the Mississippi Gulf Coast during the war-boom testifies so eloquently to the stability and character of our people as their commendable thrift. Millions of dollars have been put in life insurance, war bonds and savings accounts.

When the nation settles down, when men and women decide to work together in harmony and the wheels of industry spin again, we should enjoy a period of post-war prosperity.

And we all know that whatever happens, the ones with a substantial cash reserve in the form of healthy savings accounts will enjoy a peace of mind that will stand them in good stead.

Hancock Bank pays mid-year interest on its bank savings accounts in July. Thousands of our customers will find something added to that which they already have.

Our services are geared to help our customers conserve. Constructive and conservative, we encourage thrift as a habit for we have seen so many use it as a stepping stone to happiness, opportunity and security.

Reconversion in this Republic can be achieved only by working together. There can be no enduring prosperity in the nation unless we are willing to work and save for it. Foresight and thrift are inseparable. The first step to financial independence can be taken by opening a savings account in your bank.

Care of Babies Against "Summer Complaint"

The sixty thousand mothers of babies born each year in Mississippi need to know how to protect their infant citizens against "summer complaint" or dysentery, stated Dr. Virginia Howard, director of the division of Maternal and Child Health, State Board of Health. She said that babies usually get this serious illness from impure drinking water, unclean food, contamination carried by flies, or from another sick person.

"The first and most important precaution against summer complaint is sanitation of the home," said Dr. Howard. "Be sure that the home is well screened from flies or that the baby's bed is screened, that until the baby is 2 years old his drinking water should be boiled and that his food is clean, well-refrigerated and protected from dirt. Be sure that you wash your hands each time you offer a baby anything to eat."

Especially during the summer months, a baby should not be taken to see any person who is ill and should be kept away from any sick

FLUSH KIDNEY URINE

Benefit wonderfully from famous doctor's discovery that relieves backache, run-down feeling due to excess acidity in the urine.

People everywhere are finding amazing relief from painful symptoms of bladder irritation caused by excess acidity in the urine. DR. KILMER'S SWAMP ROOT acts fast on the kidneys to ease discomfort by promoting the flow of urine. This pure herbal medicine is especially welcome where bladder irritation due to excess acidity is responsible for "getting up at night." A carefully blended combination of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams; Dr. Kilmer's contains nothing harsh, is absolutely non-habit forming. Just good ingredients that many say have a marvelous effect. All drug stores sell Swamp Root.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, and help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 5 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Reenlist in Regular Peacetime Army

George W. Creel, ex 1st Lt. of Bay St. Louis and eighteen year old Clarence Donald Miles of Waveland were accepted for enlistment in the new peacetime Regular Army. They were processed by S/Sgt. Darwin R. Amos before going to the induction center at Camp Shelby to be sworn in.

Creel was accepted in the rank of Master Sergeant because he reenlisted within 90 days after being separated from the Army. In his five previous years he was a B-17 pilot and took part in four major campaigns in the European Theater, for his participation he was awarded the Air Medal awarded for meritorious achievement in flight with one Oak Leaf Cluster. Once more this ex-pilot chose the Air Corps as his branch of service and told Sgt. Amos that he reenlisted because he feels that a future in the Army holds more opportunities for education and security than civilian life at this time.

Prior to his original enlistment, M/Sgt. Creel was bookkeeper for the Marine Foods Company in Bay St. Louis where he resided with his mother, Mrs. Lola Tillman, on North Beach Boulevard.

Pvt. Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Miles, Nicholson avenue, launched his career in the army by choosing the Infantry as his branch of service. He formerly attended Bay High School.

Permanent Lunch Room Program

Jackson, Miss., June 29 (Special)—H. R. 3370 has been passed by the Congress of the United States, according to State Supt. of Education J. M. Tubb. This act provides for a permanent lunch program for the nation. Under the provisions of this act, Mississippi is allocated a Federal grant-in-aid of $2,180,719.20 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1946 and ending June 30, 1947. This total sum is divided into a grant for non-food purchases, such as equipment, etc., of $374,388.96 and $1,806,330.24 for food purchases.

This act requires that the lunch room program be administered by a state agency. The Governor has the authority to designate the state agency in the event the legislature is not in session. Federal funds are not provided for administration purposes and Honorable Jefferson Davis, Administrative Assistant to Governor Bailey will recommend in a few days that the Governor poll the members of the legislature for authorization to carry on the lunch program in the schools of Mississippi.

In the 1945-46 session 931 schools operated federally aided lunch programs and provided lunches in average daily participation for 103,331 school children. Mr. Tubb believes that the people of Mississippi appreciate this program and will endorse such an authorization from the legislators to the Governor for its continued operation under state administration.

Veterans Should Notify Veterans Administration Of Change in Present Training Status

Mississippi War Veterans who have discontinued their training under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, and now elect to re-enter training in different institutions or establishments, are causing the Veterans Administration considerable delay in processing various cases, W. F. Wheatley, Chief Vocational Rehabilitation Officer, said today. It is imperative that veterans notify the Veterans Administration immediately

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "ROAD TO UTOPIA"

Crosby, Hope and Lamour

The trio that travelled riotously to Singapore, Zanzibar and Morocco are hitting the road again. Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour star in what is said to be their greatest funfilm, Paramount's "Road to Utopia," coming Sunday and Monday to the A. & G. Theatre. For those legions of Hope-Crosby fans, this, according to all reports, should be utopian entertainment with Bob letting the gags fall, speed unlimited, and Crosby "groaning" away as he hies northward to the lusty land of the Yukon where men were men and women liked them that way.

Insiders say that the story, scripted by Norman Panama and Melvin Frank, is a giddy, gay affair with the accent on laughs. It's a take-off on the Alaskan gold-rush days with Bob and Bing out to outdo two tough desperadoes bent on swiping Dot's gold mine. Well, Dotty get her mine back and one of the boys ends up getting Dotty, which means that "Road to Utopia" gives Messrs. Hope and Crosby a chance to prove they have a way with the ladies.

In "Road to Utopia" Dotty's covered with a fur-lined parka instead of the much-acclaimed sarong, but she gets a chance to display the famous Lamour curves in a couple of tidy torso-fitting creations designed by Edith Head. Besides looking and singing in top form, Dotty is said to be quicker on the come-back than she has ever been before.

A galaxy of new hit tunes were provided for all three stars with lyrics by Johnny Burke and music by James Van Heusen. There are duets by Crosby and Hope and solos by Der Bingle and Lamour with all voices reputedly in fine fettle. The songs include "Welcome to My Dream," "Would You," "Good Time Charlie," "It's Anybody's Spring," "Personality" and "Put It There Pal."

Other members of the cast including Douglas Dumbrille, Jack LaRue, Robert Barrat and Nestor Paiva provide the necessary villainy, with newcomer Hillary Brooke portraying a gold-diggin' Yukon lass.

According to all reports this is another feather in Director Hal Walker's hat which has already been crowned with such successes as "Duffy's Tavern" and "The Stork Club." Previewers are saying that "Road to Utopia" is miles ahead of any other "road" picture.

of any change in present training status giving reason and date of change, whether or not the veteran will pursue the same objective or course of training at the new institution or establishment, and Mr. Wheatley added, prior approval must be obtained from the Veterans Administration before making such change.

"When a Veteran files a request for a change of course under the G. I. Bill, an investigation of all facts in the case will be made, and he will be notified of the VA's decision. A supplemental Certificate of Eligibility and Entitlement cannot be issued to the veteran merely upon request. Veterans desiring to make changes in training status should forward all the facts to the Veterans Administration Regional Office in order that action may be taken to expedite re-entrance into training," Mr. Wheatley said.

Blood Bank Held Last Thursday

The Blood Bank for Whole Blood held last Thursday at Bay High under the direction of Dr. J. W. Davenport had a registration of forty-one donors.

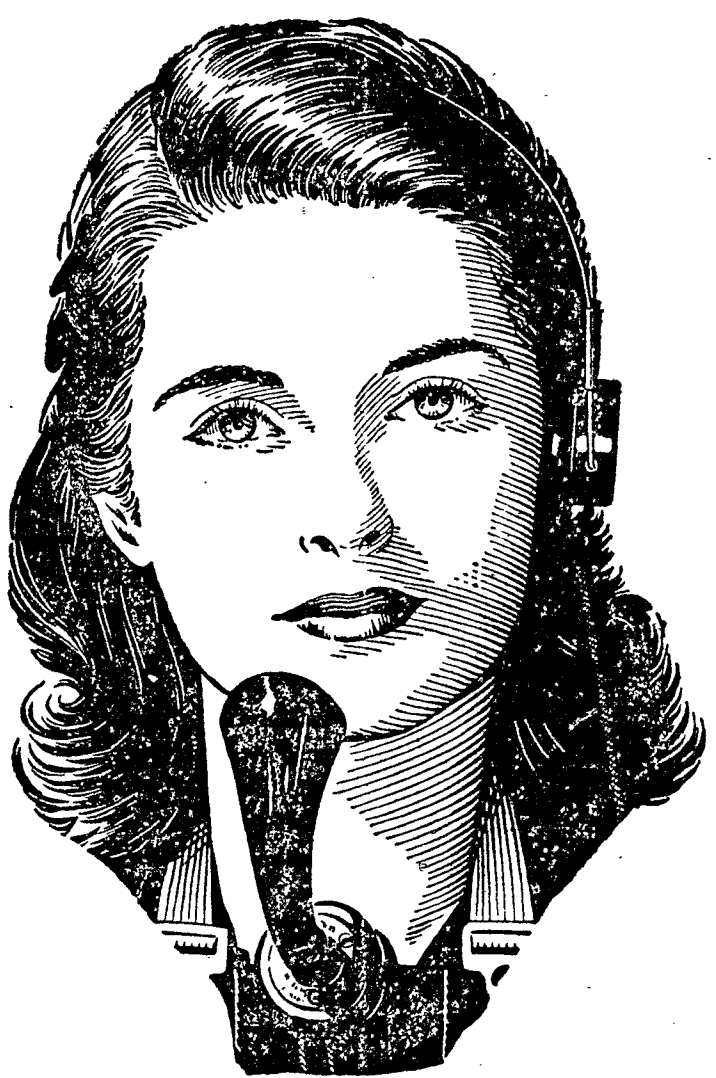

There should have been a greater number than this but those who took time out to come and give their blood were truly good Samaritans.

Possible it was not thoroughly understood that this bank was for whole blood and that this blood is for use in Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. It is not blood plasma. How often have our citizens answered SOS calls and rushed to

New Orleans to give their blood for someone who needed blood. Why not register for the next bank and give of your blood—your whole blood—for use in Bay St. Louis and the county.

Mrs. George R. Rea was chairman of the committee working with Dr. M. J. Wolfe and Mrs. Lucien M. Gex. Dr. Davenport who came out from New Orleans for the day expressed appreciation of the donors who did register.

ORTIE THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE"

With Lana Turner and John Garfield

Lana Turner more glamorously appealing than ever before. John Garfield in the most powerful role of his career. A strange, explosive love story, an action-packed tale of romance, murder and ironic retribution. That's "The Postman Always Rings Twice," opening Sunday and Monday on the Ortie screen.

This grimly dramatic James M. Cain best-seller is brought to the screen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with every emotional and dramatic turn emphasized co-starring Miss Turner and Garfield in their most significant roles to date.

For Miss Turner, her part as Cora Smith, provocative wife of a roadside restaurant proprietor, comes as a new triumph following her dramatic success as the hotel stenographer in "Week-End at the Waldorf." For Garfield his role as Frank Chambers, footloose hitch-hiker, is another bid for top screen honors following his Academy Award hailed performance in "Pride of the Marines."

Cecil Kellaway, veteran of many top calibre screen and stage characterizations, including the memorable role of the Prince of Wales in "Mrs. Parkington," completes the triangle as Lana's unimaginative, unwanted husband.

As the respective district attorney and defense counsel in the dramatic murder trial sequence are Leon Ames and une Cronyn. Ames recently completed a feature role with Fred Astaire and Lucille Bremer in "You and the Thief," and Cronyn, an Academy Award nominee for his performance in "The Seventh Cross," recently played his first romantic role in a "Letter for Evie."

Audrey Totter, whose screen career rocketed following "The Sailor Takes a Wife," plays a pretty waitress and Miss Turner's rival for Garfield's love.

Tay Garnett, who filmed Greer Garson's last two box-office successes, "The Valley of Decision" and "Mrs. Parkington," directed the new M-G-M production.

By, and A. G. Favre, Clerk of said Board.

Be it Ordered by the Board that the Board recess until Wednesday morning, June 19th, 1946, at 9:00 o'clock A. M.

Southern Forest Experiment Station Observes Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

The Southern Forest Experiment Station observes its twenty-fifth anniversary this week in its headquarters in New Orleans and at its eight field branches across the Deep South from Florida to Texas.

An agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, the Station was established on July 1, 1921, opening shop in the Custom House here with a staff of four technicians. Today, the organization leases a 42-room former private residence in City Park from the City of New Orleans, and its staff consists of 70 technical foresters and an equal number of assistants and clerks engaged on forest research.

As carried on from the Southern Station, forest research is not of the "swivel chair" or test tube variety. Most of the Station's experiments and research are carried on out in the field, where the forests stand. The eight branch stations under the New Orleans headquarters where the field work is done, are located at Harrison and Crossett, Arkansas; Nacogdoches, Texas; Stoneville and Gulfport, Mississippi; Birmingham, Alabama; Athens, Georgia, and Lake City, Florida. Major divisions of research being conducted include forest management, forest economics and surveys, range research, forest utilization service, and work with cooperating agencies in investigations of forest insects and control of diseases and decay in trees and lumber.

Charles A. Connaughton, director of the Station for the past two years, lists major accomplishments in research over the past quarter century to include the forest survey, which is a timber census necessary to industry in the locating of processing plants; proper management of farm woodlands for the greatest economic return; new methods of operating naval stores production to conserve labor and timber; studies in the utilization of surplus hardwoods; new information on growing timber and raising cattle on the same land; methods of handling forest tree seeds and seedlings for reforestation; studies in controlled burning on the long leaf pine type stands for the reduction of fire hazard, preparation of seed beds, and control of brown spot disease. An outstanding example of forest research is the Crossett Experimental Forest in South Arkansas, where a well-stocked 40 acres of pine has been under intensive management for eight years. It has yielded posts, fuel, pulpwood, and sawlogs valued at $14.55 per acre per year. For the small farmer this would mean an income, after expenses, of $1.13 per hour for his labor in his woods.

"Forest research is a long-time project," Director Connaughton points out, "and we are not ready to say of any of our projects that all the answers have been obtained. We will continue our research problems already being studied, and undertake new projects in direct response to the need for new knowledge and the possible benefits to be derived."

crease of 97% for diphtheria is an outstanding example of what can be accomplished in saving life when knowledge pertaining to prevention and treatment of disease is available and fully utilized. A number of large communities in the United States have not lost a single child from diphtheria in several years. What other communities have done, we in Mississippi can also do—but we must make full use of all methods at hand.

Another signal victory for public health has been the decline of 95% in the death rate from diphtheria and enteritis. For every child that now dies from this cause, 20 died a little more than a generation ago. The principal factors in bringing about these results have been in the pasteurization of milk, the greater purity of drinking water and foods, modern refrigeration and the widespread education of mothers regarding the care and feeding of young children.
